

FIVE Candidates.
THREE Forums.
ONE Vote.
YOURS.

Five men want to be Richmond's next mayor.
Please join us to hear where they stand on Richmond's most crucial issues.

RICHMOND DECISION '08

Forum I of III

THE FUTURE OF DOWNTOWN

Development, revitalization, city services and the master plan.

Tuesday, Sept. 23, 2008

5:30 p.m. Reception, 6 p.m. Program

The Renaissance Conference Center

107 W. Broad St.

Cash bar and light hors d'oeuvres. Space is limited. First-come, first-served.
Follow live analysis on RVANews.com, and hear the forum broadcast Friday, Sept. 26, at 1 p.m. on WRIR-FM 97.3.
For more information call 358-0825.

Sponsored by Style Weekly and the League of Women Voters together with the Virginia Bar Association Young Lawyers Division, Coalition For A Greater Richmond and the Virginia Conference United Methodist Board of Church and Society

Richmond Decision '08 is proudly supported by:

Alliance for the Performing Arts, American Institute of Architects - Richmond, Arts Council of Richmond, Downtown
Neighborhood Association, Homeward, OPUS, Partnership for Smarter Growth, Falls of the James Sierra Club, Venture Richmond and the Virginia Interfaith Center for Public Policy